

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, September 14 1706.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Aug. 27.

Rome, August 7.

THE First of this Month, Cardinal Grimani the Emperor's Ambassador, had a long Audience of the Pope; and afterwards a Conference with Cardinal Pauluci his Holyness's chief Minister and Secretary of State. That Evening the Square of Navone was overflowed with Water, as is the Custom yearly during the great Heats, for the Diversion of the Nobility and others, who in great Number repair'd thither in their Coaches: And the Cardinal de la Trimouille, who has the Management of the Affairs of France at this Court, and whose Palace is in that Square, gave a Magnificent Collation to several other Cardinals and to the Duke d' Uzeda Ambassador of Spain. The 2d, the Pope visited the Church of the Capuchins, and at his Return to his Palace gave publick Audience to People of all Conditions, as is his Custom the First Monday of every Month. Yesterday the 6th, he held a Congregation upon the Damage done to the Ferrareze by the Army of the Imperialists commanded by Prince Eugene of Savoy's passing through that Province; but the Result is not yet made publick. 'Tis known however, that Signior Gozodini is order'd to write about it to the Court of Vienna and to Prince Eugene; and 'tis said Cardinal Pallavicino, late Governour of this City, is to go to Bologna, in the Quality of the Pope's Legate.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Sept 3.

Rome, August 14. The 9th Instant in the Morning Cardinal Grimani had a private Audience of the Pope, upon some Dispatches which he had receiv'd by an Express from the Emperour, relating to the Election of a new Bishop of Munster. The 11th the Cardinal de la Trimouille receiv'd an Express from the King of France his Master, and immediately communicated his Letter to the Pope: After which his Eminency had a long Conference in the Convent of the Carthusians, with the Cardinal del Giudici, late Viceroy of Naples, and the Duke d' Uzeda. Letters from Naples of the 10th of this Month advise, that the Duke d' Escalona Viceroy of that Kingdom had receiv'd a Letter from King Philip V. of Spain, in which among other Things that Prince commanded him to dismiss all the present Members of the Council of State and War, and to put others into their Rooms.

Shields, September 10. Yesterday sail'd out of this Port about 50 Sail of laden Colliers, under Convoy of the Strumbolo and Feverham. About 50 Sail more will be ready in 2 or 3 Days: The Ruby and Scarborough will (I suppose) be their Convoy, for I do not hear of any Ship that will go for Russia this Year. The Nightingale Man of War is gone by this Bar for Scotland, with 2 Ships under her Convoy.

Tarmouth, September 11. This Morning sail'd from hence to the Southward her Majesty's Ships the Rochester and Bonadventure, with the East Country Ships and laden Colliers consisting of about 100 Sail: This Day came into the Roads the Chatham Prize, with 11 Sail of Hull Ships under her Convoy; and this Evening came in near 100 Sail of laden Colliers under Convoy of one Man of War.

Dartmouth, September 10. The Fleet continues still in Torbay. Here are in this Port 3 Dutch Privateers ready to go out to cruise.

Plymouth, Sept. 10. This Day was brought into this Port a Privateer of St. Malo, called the Marquis de Thiange, of 16 Guns and 84 Men, taken by Her Majesty's Ship the Worcester, Capt. Richard Canning Commander: She had been about 4 Days from St. Malo, when she was taken, and reports, that the Press is very great there for the Defence of that Coast, which is still under great Consternation on Suspicion of our intended Descent.
